SPECIAL THANKS

Our thanks go to Lloyd Bockstruck, a very talented lecturer and researcher from Dallas, Texas who spoke on migrations to 1861, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Scotch-Irish. We also wish to thank Mr. & Mrs. Clifton Brooks, who provided lodging and transportation for Mr Bockstruck, Dillard's Department Store's for the bags which held our handouts, and the many workers who made the workshop successful.

Mr. Albert Parker Weeks from San Antonio, Texas displayed his First Family Computerized Genealogy System, during breaks, and at lunch.

Ninty four persons, some from as far away as Alva, Carmen, Lawton Clinton and Hydro, attended the August workshop at the Park Inn in Norman.

If you did not get to attend this workshop or if you would just like to hear Mr. Bockstruck again, he will be in Lawton, 3 Oct, 1987. If interested contact Southwest Oklahoma Genealogical Society P.O. Box 148 Lawton, Ok. 73502.

FOGS MEETING PLANNED

The Federation of Genealogical Societies will meet at 9:00 Saturday Sept. 19th in the auditorium at the Oklahoma Historical Building Auditorium for a business meeting, then will go by car to the Western History Library located at O.U. in Norman.

BEGINNING WORKSHOP

OGS will hold their beginning workshop Oct. 24th in the Oklahoma Historical Building Auditorium.

SMITH CEMETERY

The Smith Cemetery (indexed on pages 3 & 4) is located in the corner of Section 26, 10 N. 3 W. Many sandstones mark the burial place of unknown persons. Vandalism has been a big problem in the past. The City of Moore now maintains the records and grounds. A fence has been constructed around it to help control problems.

RECORDS COPIED

Members worked in shifts for three days zexing 2596 pages, from the Meyer & Meyer Funeral Home records. Copying was started earlier by Mr. Carter who had copied and indexed the years 1920-1921. Meyer & Meyer records were kept from 1917 to 1957 and are now in the possession of Mayes Funeral Home. We wish to thank Mr. Mayes for his cooperation in this project.

We still need volunteers for copying other funeral home records which will be added to this index to make it as complete as possible. Plans are to publish the material in the near future.
